

CHINA JIANGSU-TEXAS IT SERVICE BUSINESS NETWORKING EVENT

Renaissance Hotel, 900 E. Lookout Dr, Richardson, TX 75082

November 9, 2009

Join a unique IT service business networking event organized by China Jiangsu Department of Commerce, in collaboration with City of Dallas, Greater Dallas Chamber of Commerce, and HP Enterprise Services (EDS), and shorewards.com. Benefit from networking opportunities with a distinguished collection of Jiangsu provincial government officials in IT services and chief representatives of Jiangsu IT companies seeking solutions and partnership opportunities for potential business relationships.

Jiangsu is located in the eastern coastal area and the Yangtze River Delta of China, in the neighborhood of Shanghai, with a population of 750 million. Jiangsu is one of the most developed provinces in China. Total amount of foreign investment in actual use ranked the first for fourth consecutive years. Total provincial import and export volume ranked the second for sixth consecutive years. With the most favorable conditions, Jiangsu offers the great advantages in developing global collaboration.

- Talent pool. Jiangsu has 119 universities and colleges and 1.39 million enrolled college students, both ranking the first in China. There are almost 3000 scientific research institutes in Jiangsu with over 300,000 employees.
- Outsourcing experiences. Nanjing is the “City of Outsourcing Base in China” and the “National Software Export Innovation Base”; Suzhou Industrial Park is the only “Outsourcing Model Base” in China.
- Information communication infrastructure. Jiangsu has built its communication network composed of many modes of transmission, and many of its communication facilities and service have reached the level of developed countries.
- Software industry. Jiangsu has 2500 software enterprises, and about 130,000 software employees. Its software industry ranked the second and its growth rate ranked the first in China. Jiangsu formally implemented Jiangsu Province Software Industry Promotion Regulation, the first regulation of this kind in the country.
- IP protection. Jiangsu lays great emphasis on IPR protection. IPR Protection Service Centers have been established by Ministry of Commerce of PRC in Nanjing, Suzhou and Lianyungan. Special judicial tribunals for IP cases have been established at courts at all levels in Jiangsu.
- Government support & policy. Governments at various levels in Jiangsu are stepping up formulation of relevant support policies to the development of service industry.
